Dear Mr Baron,

The European Social Dialogue Committee in the Sugar sector adopted jointly last year a Code of Conduct on Corporate Social Responsibility in the European Sugar Industry, promoting a number of social issues and highlighting the importance of the principles and rights at work defined by the International Labour Organisation.

The joint initiative is an example of good practice which promotes also the objectives of article 29 of the International Sugar Agreement on fair labour standards in the sector.

The Code of conduct may be of interest for the members of ISO and I am therefore pleased to transmit the text of the Code to your organisation.

Yours sincerely,
